Old Business

Achievement Night – in Washtucna was well attended. Receipts for preapproved expenses will be turned in next meeting. Washtucna hosts 2010 and then in 2011 and 2012 it is Ritzville Clubs' turn to host.

Leader's training – Saturday November 21st there are 8 new volunteers taking training from Adams County.

| Wheatland Fair - some youth have yet to receive fair checks.

Ann Hennings,. presented new volunteer record keeping for hours of all volunteers working for the university. WSU has set up a data base for 4-H volunteers to input. This will be required by the State department of Labor and Industry. Discussion took place as to concerns and possible recording systems for our volunteers. Ann will carry our questions and comments to WSU. Bridget Rohner suggested a possible paper form to fill out for those with slow dial up or no computers. Considerations from Lincoln County Council will be collected next week.

Project materials for the new year are listed in EM2778 catalog. Much can be printed on-line. Those with limited internet resource can access materials on CD or contact Karen Robertson, Extension Assistant.

New Business:

Fair Support – It was discussed that outside support dollars are not equally distributed to all 4-H members. Non-livestock members do not receive any support as the Livestock Sale is the entity which legally collects and dispenses support monies. A suggestion was to have non-livestock support go through the leader’s council as a for not-for-profit status. The discussion was tabled until next meeting. Need ideas to present to the Fair board.

Sew Camp – Kathy B. is doing another sew camp the first week in November on the early release days. They are making pillow cases and mini quillos. The kids will make 2 pillow cases, one to keep and one to donate to a hospital pediatrics ward.
