Old Business:

SPRING FAIR Waylan F. presented CTR/Leadership training participants suggestions for Spring Fair afternoon activities for 4-H clubs and members. see attached form

Alice W. noted that it helps if leaders set what activities or projects 4-H clubs do in the afternoon for Spring Fair. Camille N. suggested adding additional judging experiences in addition to livestock, example jams or jellies. Food for American Grade school Tours: It was also noted that 4-H used to help out with some of the booths. Leaders felt the goal of the Food for America Grade school Tours was to get kids interested in 4-H and to see the variety of programs available. The Leaders Council will discuss both Spring Fair 4-H activities and ideas for grade school booths at the next meeting with Ritzville FFA advisor Brad Gering.

* Bat houses are still under construction at Birds of Play in Washtucna.

New Business:

* Council leaders would like a reminder to go out to club leaders for demonstrations at Spring Fair; they will ask Karen Robertson to assist them with the reminder. Demonstrations start Friday April 17th at 4:30pm in the Grange Building. Other judging will be food and clothing judging. Any questions or for further information contact Carla J. (jerue@centurytel.net) or Janette H. (bjhollen@pionnetwb.com).
